When Bill Bruford led his jazz-oriented Earthworks combo in the '80s and '90s, jazz supporters were hoping that he was turning a lot of rockers on to jazz. After all, he had been Yes' drummer from 1968-1972 and was highly regarded by progressive rock lovers. And, to be sure, some Yes fans bought Earthworks CDs simply because it was Bruford's band. Of course, A Part, And Yet Apart is a long way ...

The sense that Africa is a part of Indian history is very important. Studying India-Africa relations can help create a historical consciousness that Africa is part of South Asia just as South Asia is part of Africa. Many developments have weakened this sense, specifically African and Indian nationalism.

When you move to Phoenix, you're a Southwesterner. When you move to Tuscaloosa, welcome to the Deep South. When you move to Washington, you're—well, what exactly? Glance at an Acela schedule and you'd think you're a Northeasterner. On the highway, though, it's quicker to drive to Cleveland than to Boston.
