Charm is the first book in J.A. Armitage's Reverse Fairytale series. It is a totally new take on the classic tale of Cinderella. A role reversed story that puts a completely new and fresh spin on the Cinderella of our childhood. Fairytale retellings are one of my favorite genres to read.

Charm (Cinderella Reverse Fairytale, #1) by J.A. Armitage

A fairy was among the magical beings seeking to pull Excalibur from its stone. Another fairy was cursed into an old woman by the Wicked Witch and asked Paige for help. She later helped the sisters find the lair of the Spider Demon. Fairies were one of the many beings to help the Charmed Ones fight Zankou after he invaded the manor.

Serena Akeroyd's Charmed By Them has a plot twist I did not see coming at the end of the book. It calmly explains complex dynamics, ideas, and relationships while addressing some concerns of people who may not initially read reverse harem. Like why five men and one woman would enter a singular relationship where no one is being fooled.
